

SCOTT STOREY - SHORT FORM BIOGRAPHY

(183 words)

British violist Scott Storey studies at the Royal College of Music with Eivind Ringstad and Simon Rowland-Jones, having held a full scholarship from Petronella Dittmer for undergraduate studies and now holding the ABRSM Postgraduate Scholarship for a Masters. In 2026, Scott was selected as one of five violists from across Europe for the inaugural Festival dei Due Mondi Academy in Spoleto, performing Brahms' First String Sextet with Kim Kashkashian, Mahler's Piano Quartet with Andrea Obiso, and Lowell Liebermann's Viola Sonata. Alongside a Derek Butler Award from the Countess of Munster Musical Trust, Scott has also been offered a place on the Trust's young artists' recital programme, with previous recital appearances including the Concerts at Cratfield Series, Eaton Concert Series, and North Norfolk Music Festival.

As a chamber musician, Scott has performed at Wigmore Hall, Windsor Castle for HM King Charles III, and beneath the Acropolis in Athens, and has recently joined the Vaughan Williams Ensemble. Concerto highlights include Berlioz's Harold in Italy with the Bromley Symphony Orchestra in January 2026, and Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante with the Vanbrugh Ensemble and Bromley Youth Music Trust.
